LIFE CARE PLANNING

Common Questions To Ask Your Care Advisor

Aging can be challenging in and of itself. Our firm would like to assist in the challenges by answering some common questions before the need arises to aid in helping you plan before crisis happens

- What care services are available to me in each phase of aging?
- Can I afford to move into a facility?
- How can I get the care I deserve in the appropriate setting?
- If I have a health care crisis what will my family need to do?
- If I cannot care for my spouse anymore who will make sure their quality of life is protected?
- Who will advocate for me to make sure I am getting the right quality of care in the right setting?
- What kind of insurance do I need? Do I need traditional Medicare? Do I need to take Part D?
- When should I apply for Medicaid? What will happen to my estate if I need Medicaid?
- What public benefits do I qualify for?
- How do I ensure my financial security as I age?
